A time to work . . .

. . . a time to play

. . . a time to think.

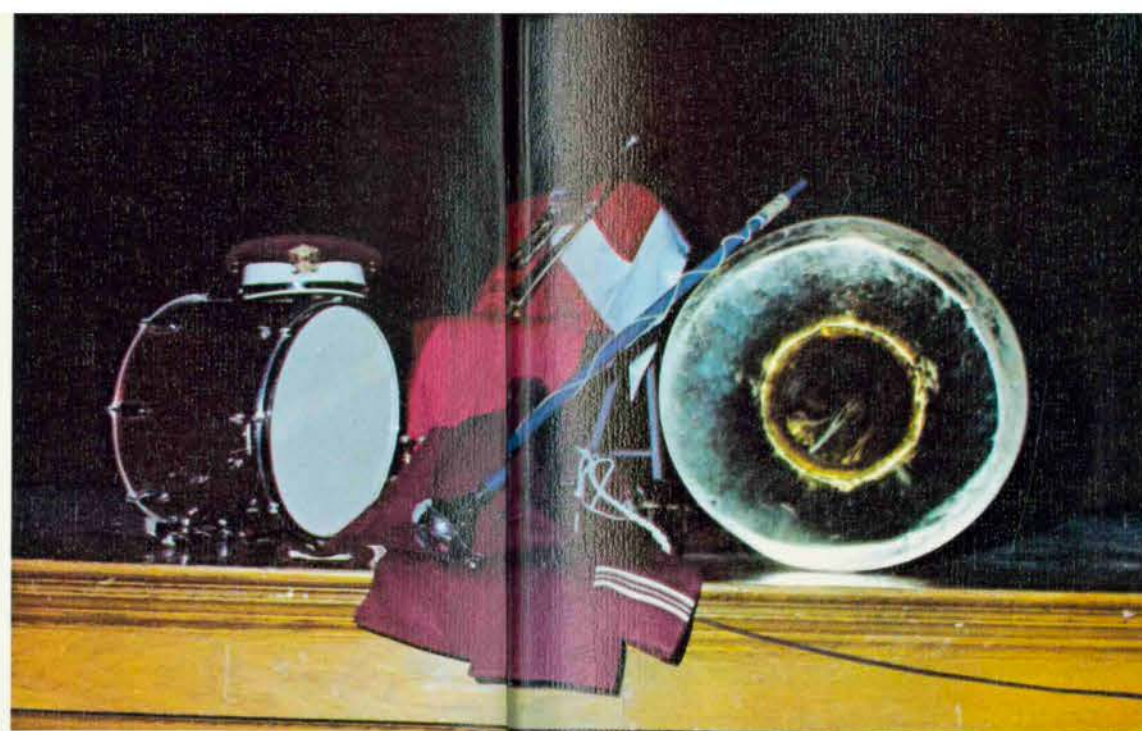

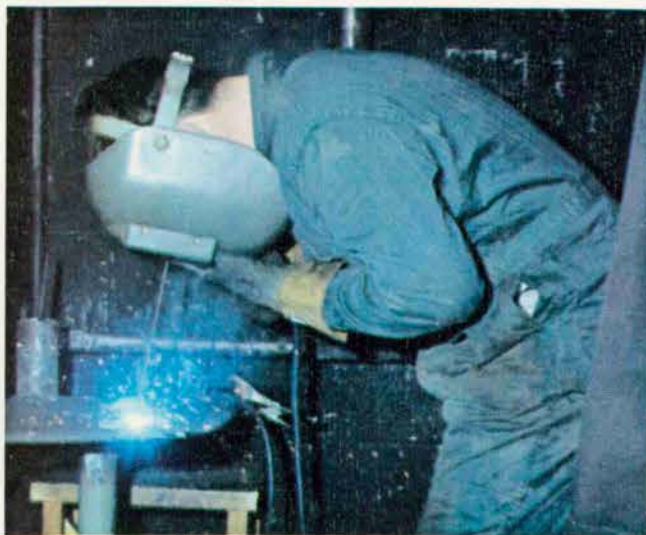

. . . a time to remember

. . . a time to forget oneself . . .

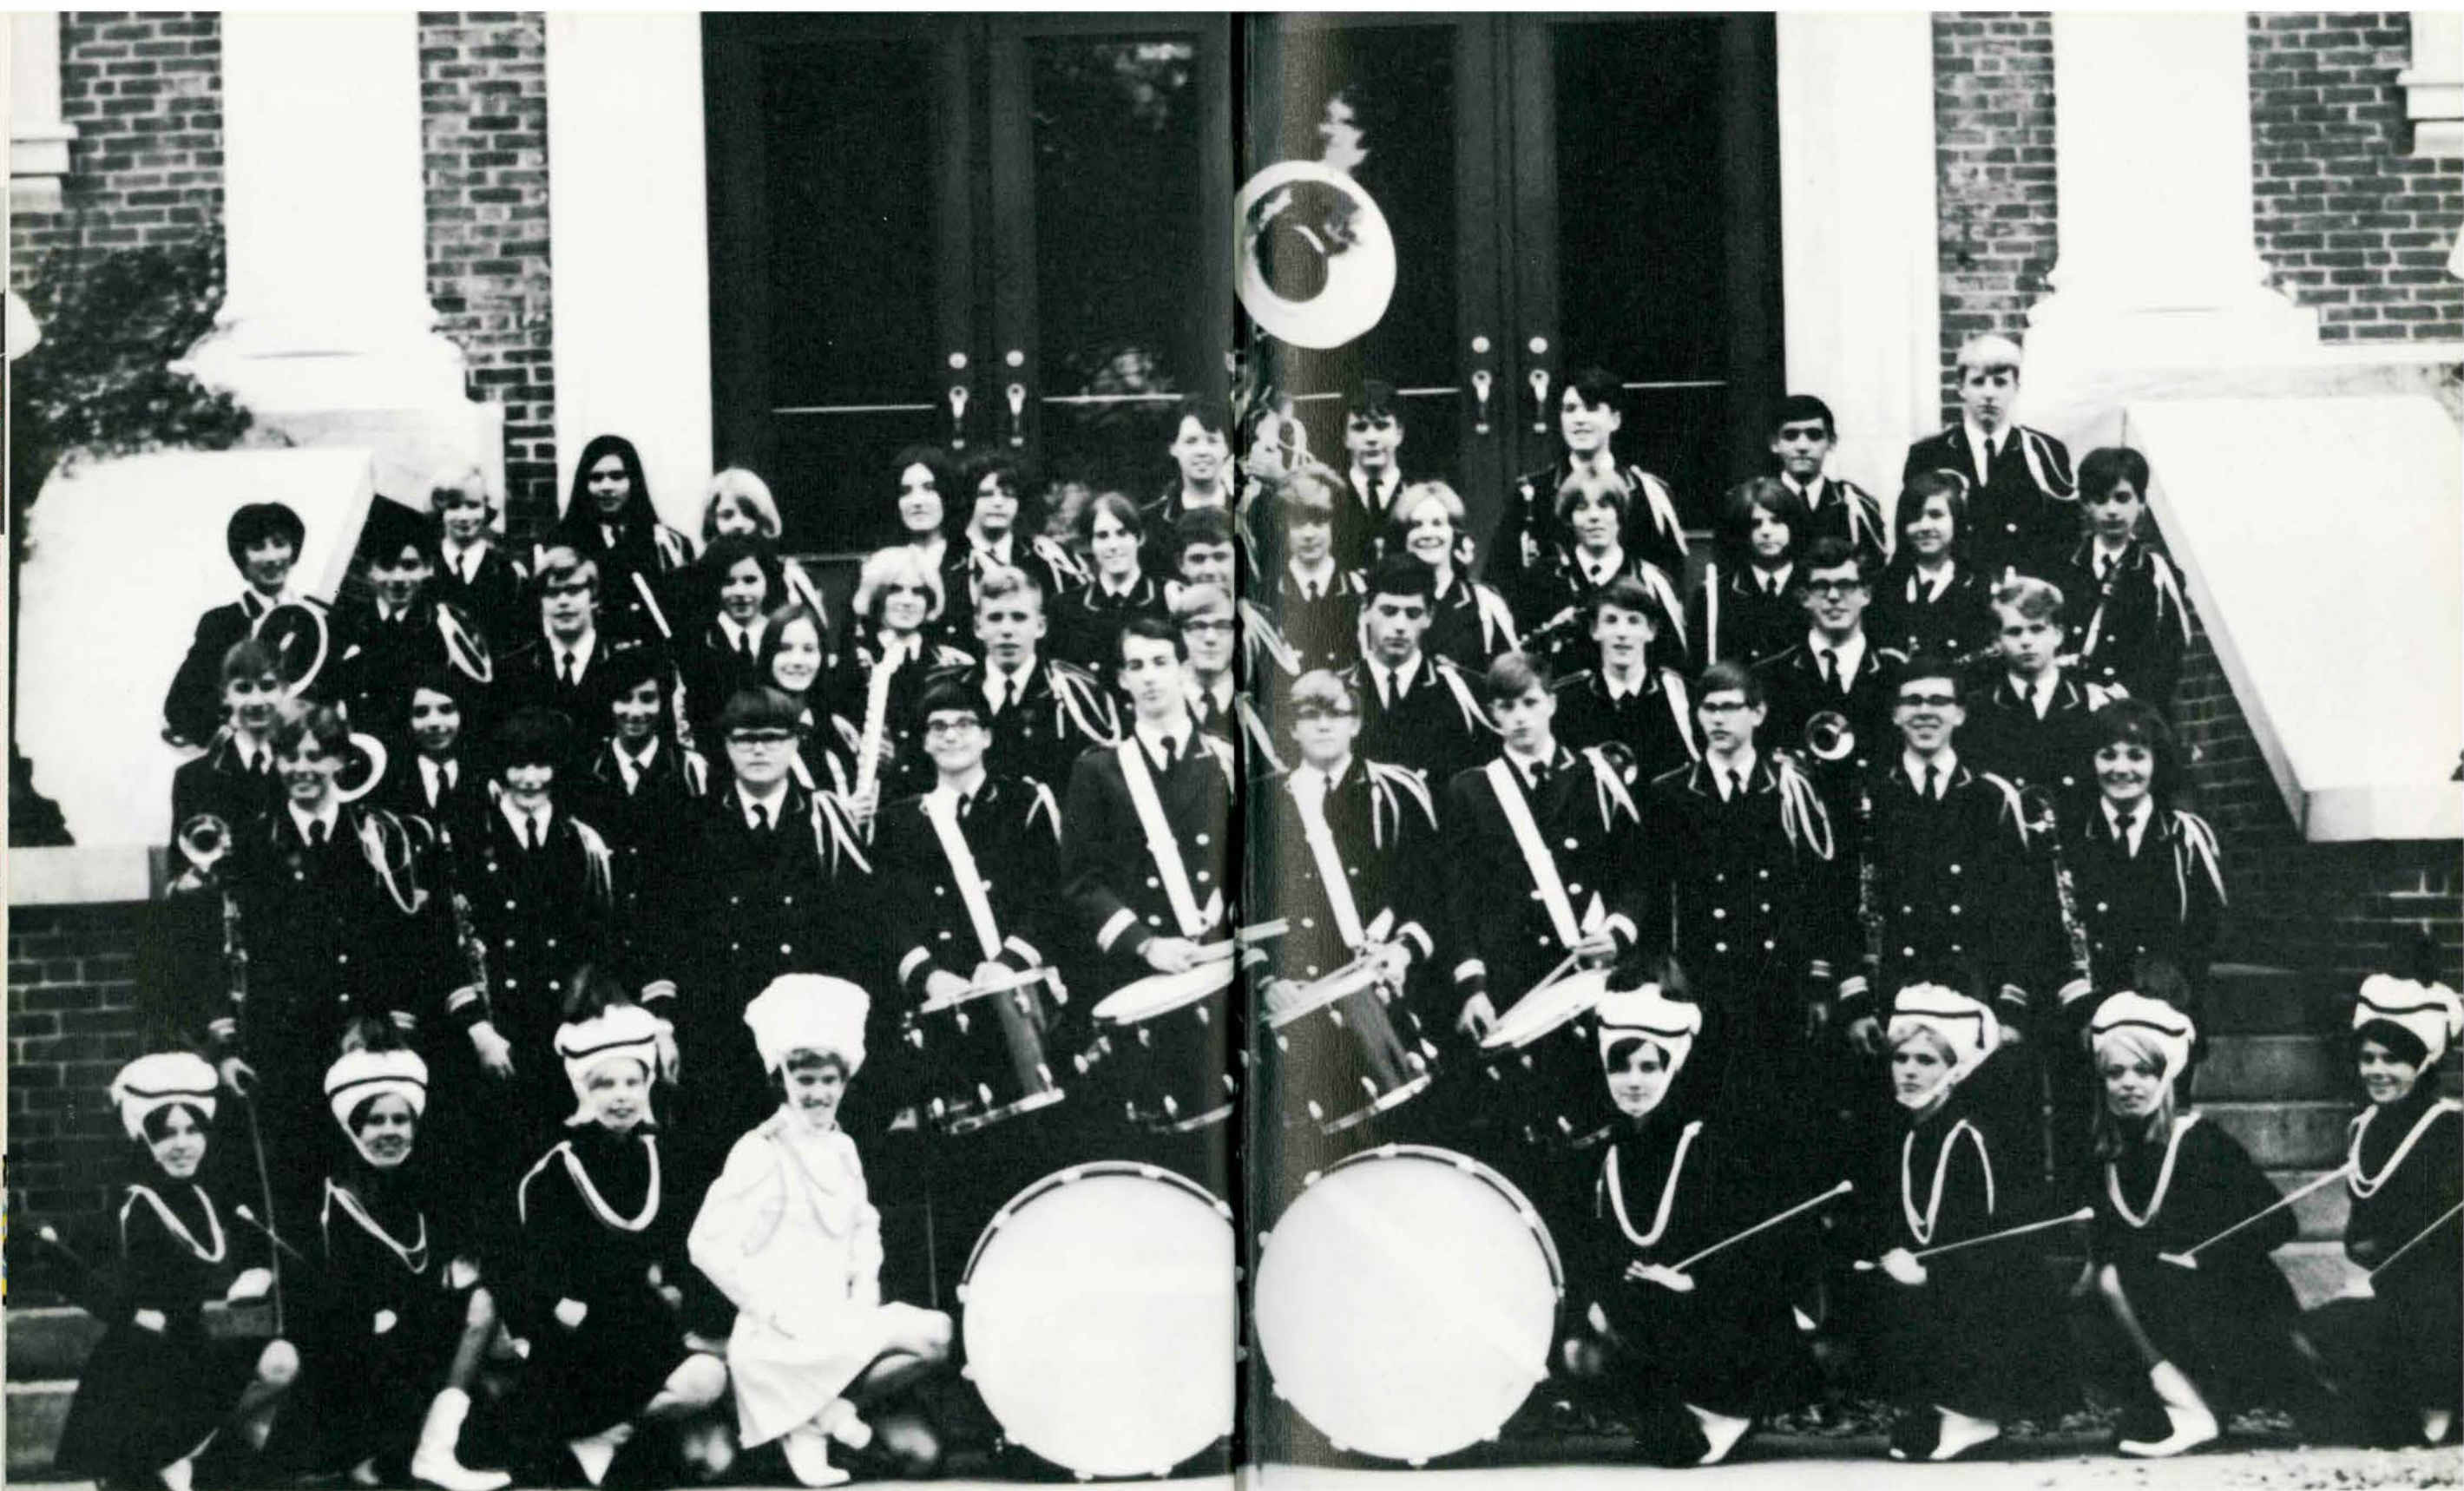

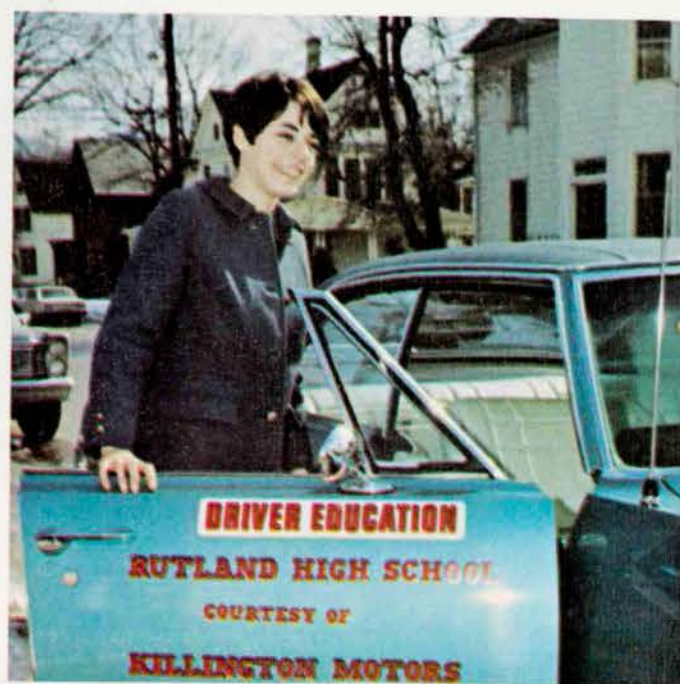

... and a time

to become oneself.

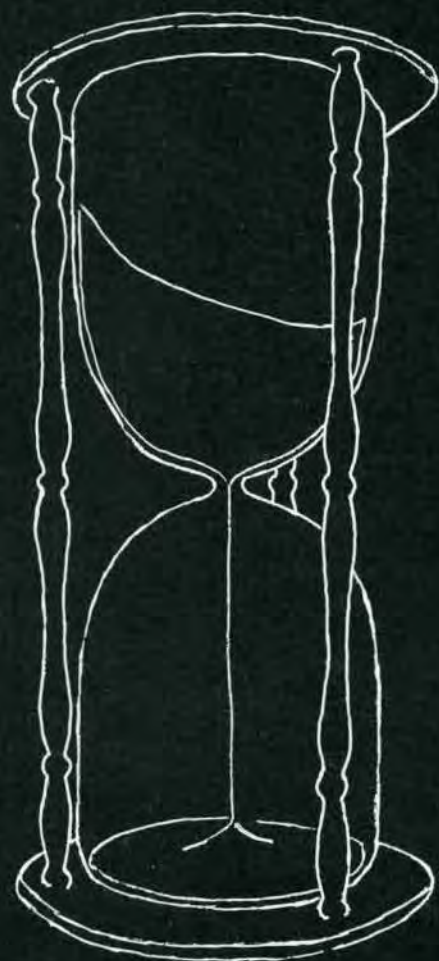

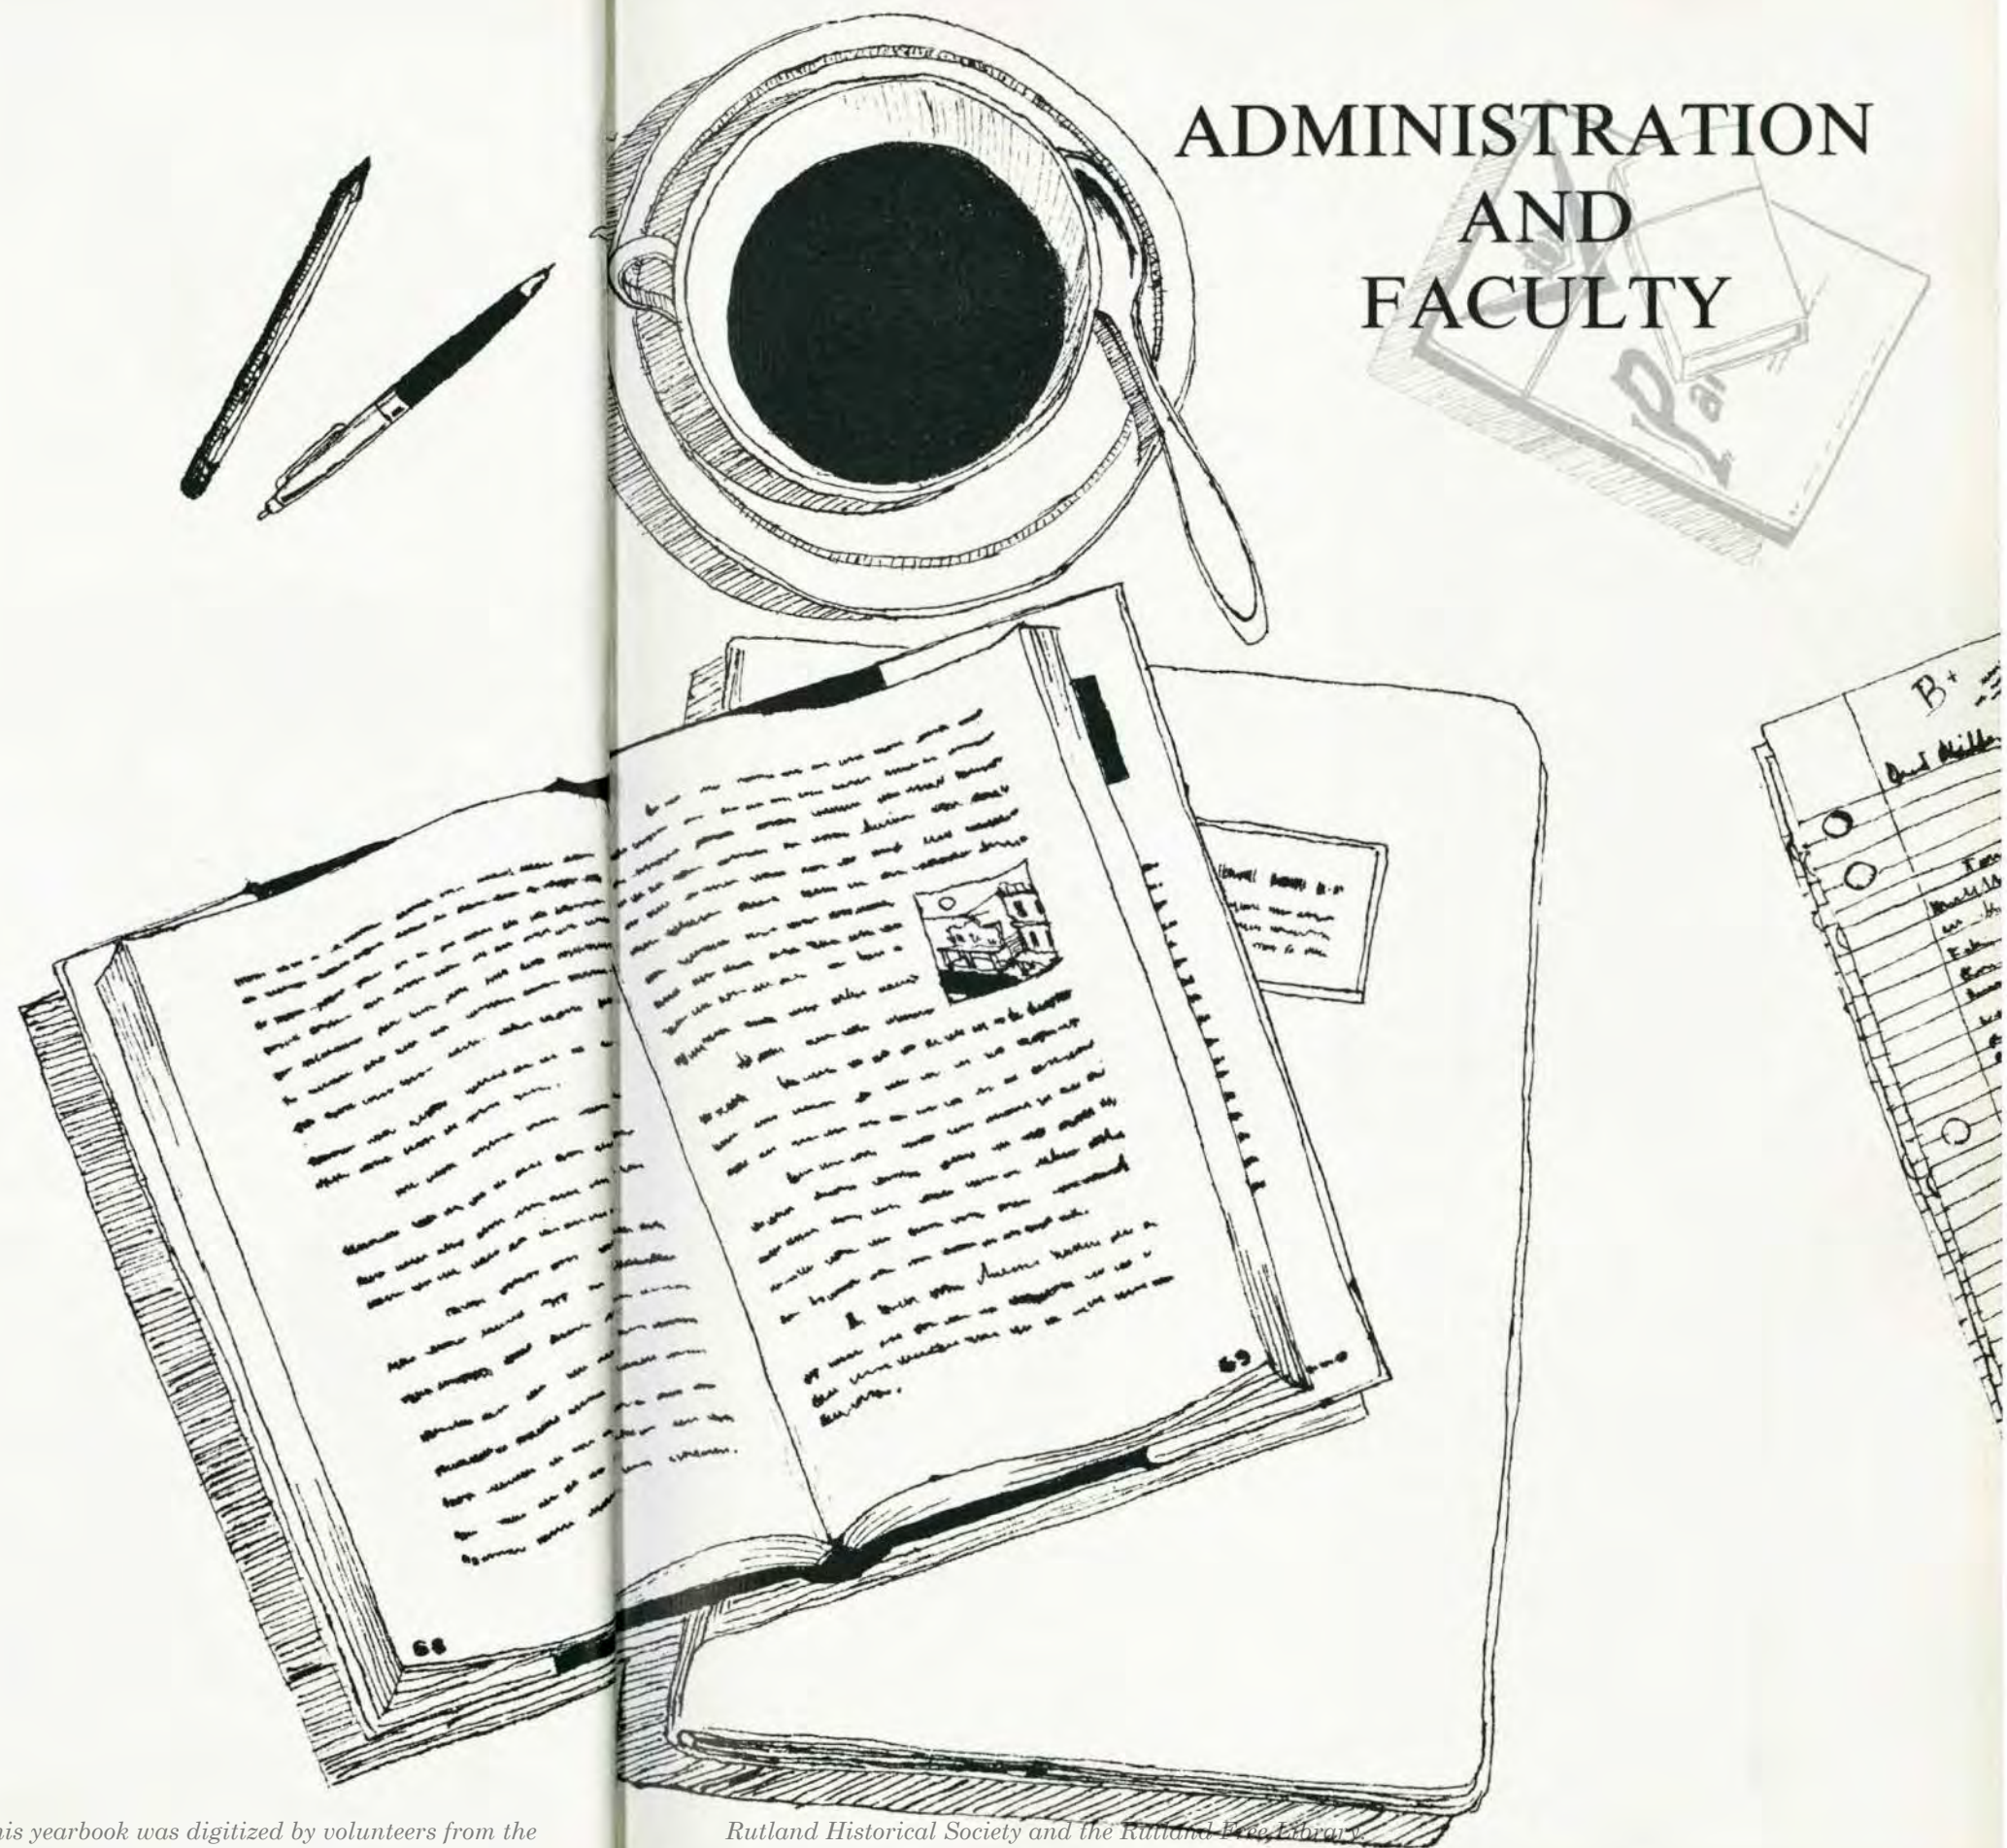

A time to join together . . .

If time will demand
Knowledge must be our answer—
People to be thanked.

DEDICATION

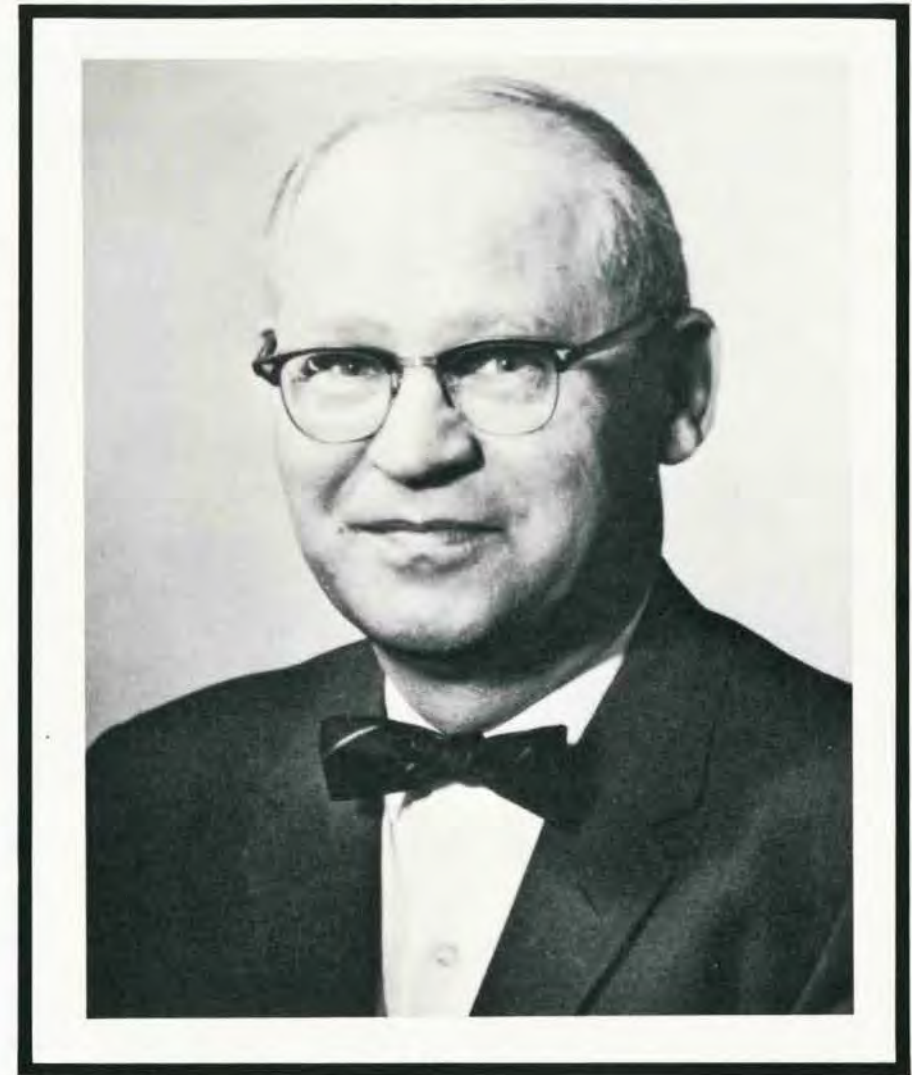

Mr. Lincoln M. Fenn

The Talisman is proudly dedicated to a person for whom everyone has the greatest admiration and respect. As a teacher and a friend to the students at Rutland High School, he has done much to instill those qualities which will best suit them for their roles as mature useful adults.

His understanding, patience and wisdom have suited him well. As a social science teacher his enthusiasm and knowledge have helped students gain an interesting insight to the fields of American history and Democracy. His abilities are also exhibited in the capable leadership and guidance he has given to student council and the American Field Service Program.

We know him as a person whose principles and integrity have served both him and each one of us as a guide in our education. For all these things, we proudly and gratefully dedicate the 1968 Talisman to our friend and teacher, Mr. Lincoln M. Fenn.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Edward Miller

Mr. Edward Miller's smiling face and congenial personality will always be fondly remembered in the halls of Rutland High School as well as in the community. As guidance director, he was always willing to help students decide on careers and vocations. As a respected member of the community, he served as president of the Rutland Rotary Club, was active in the Trinity Episcopal Church, and was a past president of the Vermont Guidance Association.

Mr. Miller's great understanding of people won him the appreciation of not only the Class of '68, but of all past and future graduating classes at RHS.

Dear Graduates:

I am very pleased to have the opportunity to write to you, the Class of 1968. On behalf of the Rutland Board of School Commissioners may I offer you heartiest congratulations for your achievements during your days at Rutland High School.

We have been overcrowded this year at the High School which has necessitated adjustments in scheduling and the length of the school day. We would like to thank you for your excellent cooperation during this situation.

This fine Talisman presents a written and visual record of your many activities during the past year. While I know you realize that the most important part of your education can not be depicted in this yearbook. This is, of course, the knowledge and insights which you have gained through your courses and association with other students and the faculty. These will remain with you long after the activities are forgotten.

We are confident that the time which you have spent here has prepared you well for whatever you choose to do in the future. Next year some of you will be involved in additional schooling, others will be in the military service, while still others will be working. We all wish you success and happiness in whatever you decide to do.

Sincerely yours,

William A. Atkins, Jr.

June 13, 1968

Congratulations to the Class of 1968!

The time has finally arrived when you have become eligible to be awarded the Rutland High School diploma. To some of you, as you look back over the last three years, the time has passed quickly; to others it has dragged interminably.

Since most of you have been students at Rutland High School for three years, this difference probably reflects not only your interests, but how you have used your time. To the busy person, time flies, there just isn't enough of it. To the person who "never has anything to do" time creeps and life is a bore.

As you go on to college, to a job, or in to military service, you will find that demands on your time will be different than they have been in high school. Depending on your situation, your time will be more controlled or less controlled by others than it has been. As you reach maturity still different demands will be made.

Whatever your position in life, about a third of your time will be spent at your job and another third you will need for rest. The balance is yours to use as you please. Some of it you will devote to your spiritual life, some to physical needs, and some to recreation; some you will want to reserve just for yourself, and some you will give to those you love, to your friends, and to others who may need it.

There is never enough time in life to do all the things that are worth doing, but use your time to do as many of them as you can. Then your life will be productive rather than barren. Then you will achieve the success that I wish for each of you.

Sincerely,

Maynard C. Robinson
Principal

FOREWORD

As graduation approaches, we look forward to the time when we will be able to explore the unknown world around us and look back upon our experiences at Rutland High School.

These past three years have given us an opportunity for learning, happiness and being together. We shall cherish these times and fondly look back to these days.

Using the beauty of poetry to represent our feelings and the hour glass to symbolize time passing, our thoughts and memories have been recorded in this book, a talisman of the time we spent at Rutland High School.

If we look in retrospect through the corridors of existence, we come to the realization that time is a continuous stream of consciousness in which all man's endeavors are immersed. It is the human spirit which has the ability to transcend the sometimes calm, but often swift and turbulent waters of the motion of time.

Each man's stream of consciousness can be compared to a tributary which flows and contributes to the ocean of mankind. Many men's contributions are of great value. Can we meet our world's demands?

Our strivings are guided by a code of attitudes and ideals which we have to determine for ourselves and apply to our lives. Time is a responsibility which holds the realization of who we are and what we can become. It is a place for action. During our life span, we should strive to cooperate with one another towards the advancement of mankind, to make our time a time to be well remembered. Let us utilize our time to achieve the honorable.

SENIOR PLAY

On November 16, 17, and 18 the Class of 1968 presented “The Miser”, an English version of the French comedy “L’Avare” by Moliere. The play, under the direction of Mr. Henry LePage, was the only fund-raising project for the senior class.

The Play concerns the marital plans of a French family and the way the carefully laid plans of the miser for profitable marriages by his son and daughter are upset. Elise, Sharon White is the miser’s daughter. She is in love with Valere, Peter Louras, who is her father’s servant. But her father, Harpogon, played by Tom Wolk, chooses a rich old man, Seigneur Anselm, played by Kip Arnold, to be her husband. In the meantime, Elise’s brother, Cleante, played by Bob Pinney, has fallen in love with a neighbor girl, Marianne, played by Robin Fiske. Through an amazing number of incidents, everything ends happily, as it does in all of Moliere’s comedies. Valere and Elise, and Cleante and Marianne are happily united, and Harpogon, the miser, is left with his money, the only thing that really matters to him in his life.

SENIOR BALL

Faye Romano, escorted by Dave Frankiewicz, reigned as queen of "Auf Wiedersehen," this year's Senior Ball.

The six girls and their escorts chosen for the court were Carol Pikkarainen, Tom Rondeau; Sharon White, Pete Louras; Margie Galarneau, Joseph Whitemore; Debbie Fish, Jeff Kaplan; Linda Drazin, Tom Johnston; Holly Onion, Jack Candon.

Adhering to their custom of breaking tradition, the Senior Class held its ball for the first time outside of school, at the Pico Peak Lodge.

BACCALAUREATE

Traditional Baccalaureate services for the Class of 1968 was held in the high school gymnasium. Four Rutland clergymen presented the service. The Reverend William Jeffrey of the Rutland Baptist Church gave the invocation. The sermon was delivered by Father William Gallagher of Christ the King Church. Following the sermon were a post-hymn prayer and the benediction delivered by the Reverend Donald Webster of Trinity Episcopal Church and the Reverend Donald Morgan of the Congregational Church, respectively.

Accompanied by Mr. William Spear, the hymns America the Beautiful and Our God, Our Help in Ages Past, were sung by the audience. The anthem was sung by the RHS chorus under the direction of Robert Miller, RHS music director.

Following the services the audience gathered on the high school lawn for the planting of the ivy. Ivy Planting Committee chairman, Melinda McIntosh delivered the Ivy speech and Barry Ross planted the ivy. The seniors then concluded the ceremony with the singing of the Alma Mater, "Amici."

CLASS DAY

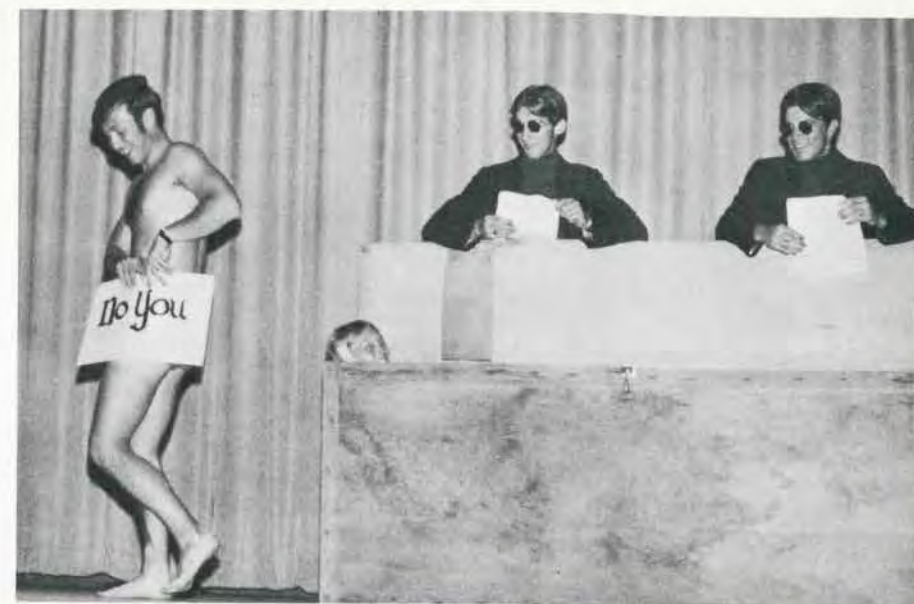

Class Day is an annual assembly sponsored by the Senior Class. Teachers and students both become the object of humor.

Highlights of the Class Day program included a one-act play, "The Salvation of Pete Welch," and the traditional class will, prophecy and class history.

"The Salvation of Pete Welch," was a take-off on "The Salvation of Lonnie McCain," RHS entry in the Headmasters' one-act play contest.

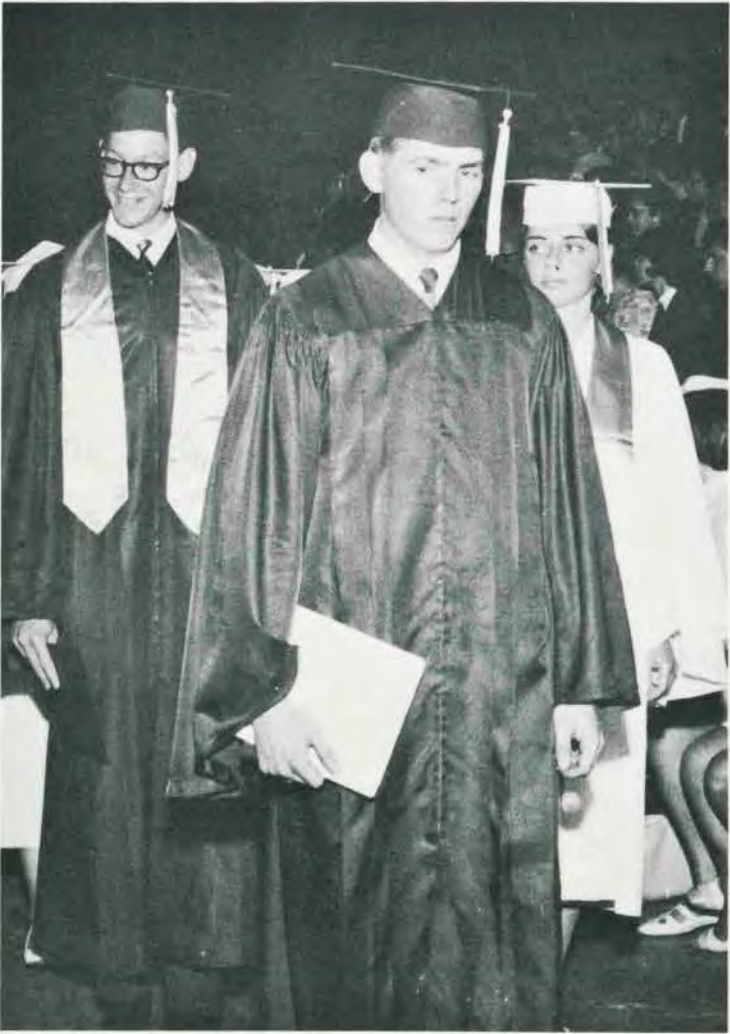

Members of the Class Will Committee acted as lawyers for their part of the program. Jack Barrett uttered lines from his coffin in the background. The class prophecy imitated TV's "Rowan and Martin Laugh In."

Chairman of the Class Will Committee was Patti Pisanelli. Heading the Class Prophecy Committee was Dawn Carbine and Artie Webster.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Eleven Seniors and thirteen Juniors were initiated into the Rutland High School Chapter of the National Honor Society in a Court Room induction ceremony this school year 1967-1968.

The students are chosen for membership based on their character, leadership, scholarship, and service. During the school year the thirteen present members conducted the Brandon Training School Share Program, sold candy at Basketball games and attended the information desk.

RUTLAND HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

CHORUS

Busy as usual, the Rutland High chorus performed for the Rotary Club and the student body. Members gave an excellent Christmas program and spring concert, both directed by Mr. Robert Miller. Selected students participated in the All-State and New England Music Festivals. As a special treat, the chorus was host to the University of Connecticut Chamber Singers.

GIRLS' STATE

Sponsored by the American Legion five junior girls attended Girl's State at Vermont College in Montpelier. The girls were chosen on the basis of their qualities of leadership, character, scholastic achievement and their interest in government. Rutland girls taking office were Sue Chrichton senator, Sandy Blosser, Martha Lord and Dawn Wilson, town representatives.

Girls Staters participated in several assemblies daily followed by afternoon sports including basketball, volleyball, tennis, badminton, pool and bowling. Evening activities incorporated speeches by Governor Haff, Lt. Governor Daley, and former Governor Ralph Foote. Programs are comprised skits, chorus selections, and even a sugar-on-snow party. A formal ball with the citizens of Girls and Boys State completed the week's activities.

BOYS' STATE

Rutland High School sent its delegates to the American Legion's annual Boys' State program at Norwich University. The members of this delegation played an active part in the model governments and other activities offered. Campaigning was fast and furious at Boys' State and all representatives gained an excellent understanding of how politics and representative government work.

KEY CLUB

Looking for active young men? Under the direction of faculty advisor Mr. Richard Billard, President John Stowell and fellow officers Jeff Kaplan, Peter Cobb, Carl Hinsman, and Gerald Weiss, the Key Club sponsored busses to games and a bake sale for the heart fund's benefit. Supported by the Kiwanis Club, members also served the school by holding an anti-vandalism assembly, computer dance, book sales, "Psychedelic Pumpkin" Halloween dance, and a college bowl. In addition the Key Club sold basketball and football programs, met with Spaulding High School, played basketball with the Kiwanis, and aided them with their service projects.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

For those who attended the International Relations Club's party in honor of students from Putney's Experiment in International Living dancing "La Samba" was a new experience. Other events furthering a better understanding of the world were speeches by Stephen Lyne, a foreign service officer; Mr. Allan Kousen, who served in the Peace Corps; Dot Stoops, an American Youth Exchange delegate to South America; and Tom Glasbeek, R.H.S.' Dutch exchange student. Another get-together honored Kathy Flinn before she left to study in England. Congratulations for a successful year to President Robin Fiske, vice president Kathy Flinn, secretary Judy Paul, treasurer Mimi Davis, program chairman Dot Stoops, and faculty advisor Mr. Leonard Nadeau!

G.A.A.

Thanks to the Girls' Athletic Association, R.H.S. students have enjoyed tasting suppers and "Itchycoo Park," the Sadie Hawkins dance. President Carol Hebert, vice president Sandy Jenne, secretary Mimi Davis, and treasurer Jean Page also planned a holiday get-together and swimming party at La Cortina. Under their advisor, Mrs. Valerie McClellan, the girls sponsor the cheerleaders and girls' varsity and intramural sports. This year the G.A.A. adopted a five-point membership system.

"The Teahouse of the August Moon," this years Mimes play, was presented in the Auditorium on April 25, 26, and 27.

The play deals with the attempts of the U.S. Army to assist the natives of a small town in Okinawa immediately after World War II. The Army sends a trained expert to provide leadership in organizing the natives. The carefree customs of the Okinawans are very inviting for the expert, and he soon finds it impossible to follow the army's orders. What happens when he builds a tea house instead of a school building, and the colonel comes to check on the operation provides for a memorable amature production.

Mr. Henry LePage did an outstanding job as director, assisted by Robert Wolsfelt as student director.

JUNIOR PROM 1967

"SILVER BELLS" CHRISTMAS '67

CLASS HISTORY

Freshman

In reviewing our past four years of High School life, we think—Can it be possible that at the beginning of those years many of us were in Washington D.C.? Doc Holiday seemed to impress us more than the White House!

We bought books for the first time. Our Band was ecstatic over their new purple and gold Blazers (although they never did get to wear them!)

French students including Scott McVeigh, Marion Hathaway, Patti Pisanelle, Bill Elwood, Diane Johnson, Tom Looker, Debbie Fish, Martha Lord, Rick Bove, and Nancy Plumley produced a fine French assembly with Madame Durkee's aid.

Outstanding freshman athletes Dolores Haley and Nan Bliss received Silver Cups. Barry Keefe was athlete of the Year. On the other side of the fence, Chris O'Brien, Bob Tinker, Melinda McIntosh, and Andee Burke earned awards in English, while Tom Wolk became our Class Citizen and Scholar of the Year.

When June arrived and the Farewell Dance was past, all 245 of us finally received our diplomas, waiting for our first year in R.H.S.

Sophomore

Confusion reigned as we entered High School that first time preparing for another memorable year, but how could we fail with class officers Tom Wolk, Andee Bishop, Shelly Scott, and Joe Marro?

Debbie Fish walked away as Miss Vermont High School in the Talent Contest, Linda Merrill placed second in the D.A.R. Essay Competition. Butch Paul made Varsity Basketball with our J.V. Cheerleaders Shelly Scott, Carol Pikkaranian, Carla Fretette, Martha Lord, and Andee Bishop and Majorettes Sue Dick, Sharon Wetherby and Marth Cobb cheering him on.

And do you remember the Memorial Day assembly? Becky Roucolet, Bob Wolsfelt, Melinda McIntosh, and Rick Baker do. Yes, we also did have a "Carnival in Venice" with the help of co-chairmen Carol Hebert and Peter Louras.

Junior

"Rutland Runs All Over Opponents" was a "Herald" tribute to Mike Canty and also to our entire Junior Class. R.H.S. boys brought home the Vermont Class L Championship.

CLASS

In spite of ice-dogged instruments, our musicians gave a splendid concert at Mount Royal, while back at R.H.S. auditorium Jack Barrett, Holly Onion, Barry Ross, Brent Wilson, and Fellow Shepherds presented "Amahl and the Night Visitors". This year the Rejects, each one a "Hard Working Man" cut their first record.

For class officers we chose Buf Spaulding, Jamie Wyman, Rob Van Buskirk, and Sandy Blosser. Other leaders included Karen Jones, and Glen Gilbert, our representatives to a legislative session in Montpelier. We have good reason to be proud of David Miller, who's painting represented Vermont at the Kennedy Memorial Library Construction Site in Washington, D.C.

Newly elected members of the National Honor Society were Sue Crichton, Alan Olsen, Andy Burke, Tom Wolk, Dawn Wilson, Sandy Blosser, Carl Hinsman, Anne Loveland, Melinda McIntosh, John Stowell, Bob Tinker, and Mike Canty. Continuing along the more serious part of our Junior Year were those Edmunds' Essays, and the constant struggle through the country's complex past in U.S. History.

Added attractions were the new elevator and Class rings. "You say Hello and I'll say Good-bye", this Ingvard Wilhelmson, Greg Lamb's A.F.S. Brother from Norway entered Rutland as Andee Bishop packed her bags for her A.F.S. trip to South Africa a few months later.

Palm trees and pineapples set the mood for "Blue Hawaii" organized by Gretchen Graham and Mike Canty. The crowning of King Mike Canty and Queen Sandy Blosser the final touches to our truly successful Junior Prom.

Senior

And now we are "the Seniors". With officers Steve Durkee, Dave Frankiewicz, Gretchen Graham, and Sandy Blosser we set out to make this year the best ever. Though swamped with college questionnaires we find time to elect Andy Burke D.A.R. girl, sell commencement announcements, take cap and gown measurements and read the issues of the "The Other Thing" a new students' paper. Dot Stoops won the Betty Crocker Homemaker Contest.

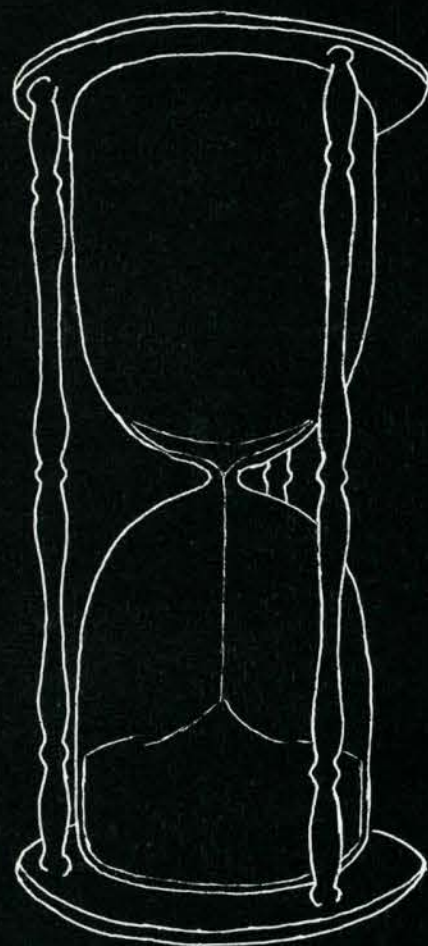

Much work went on in the Red and White Room as "Talisman" co-editors Sue Cushman and Peter Louras continuously labored at one desk producing a complete yearbook that we may be proud of, while across the room Sue Crichton, editor of our Red and White, ground away at the school's monthly.

In sports the Boys have taken honors in every event. We even conquered the trophy for the Southern Vermont L State Championship in basketball making up for a season of hard-luck in football.

Thanks to Tom Wolk, Robin Fiske, Peter Louras, Pete Welch, Sharon White, Bob Pinney and Monsieur LePage, our Senior Play L'Avare was a sell out and we know that with Holly Onion and Tom Repeta our Senior Ball will be as great a success.

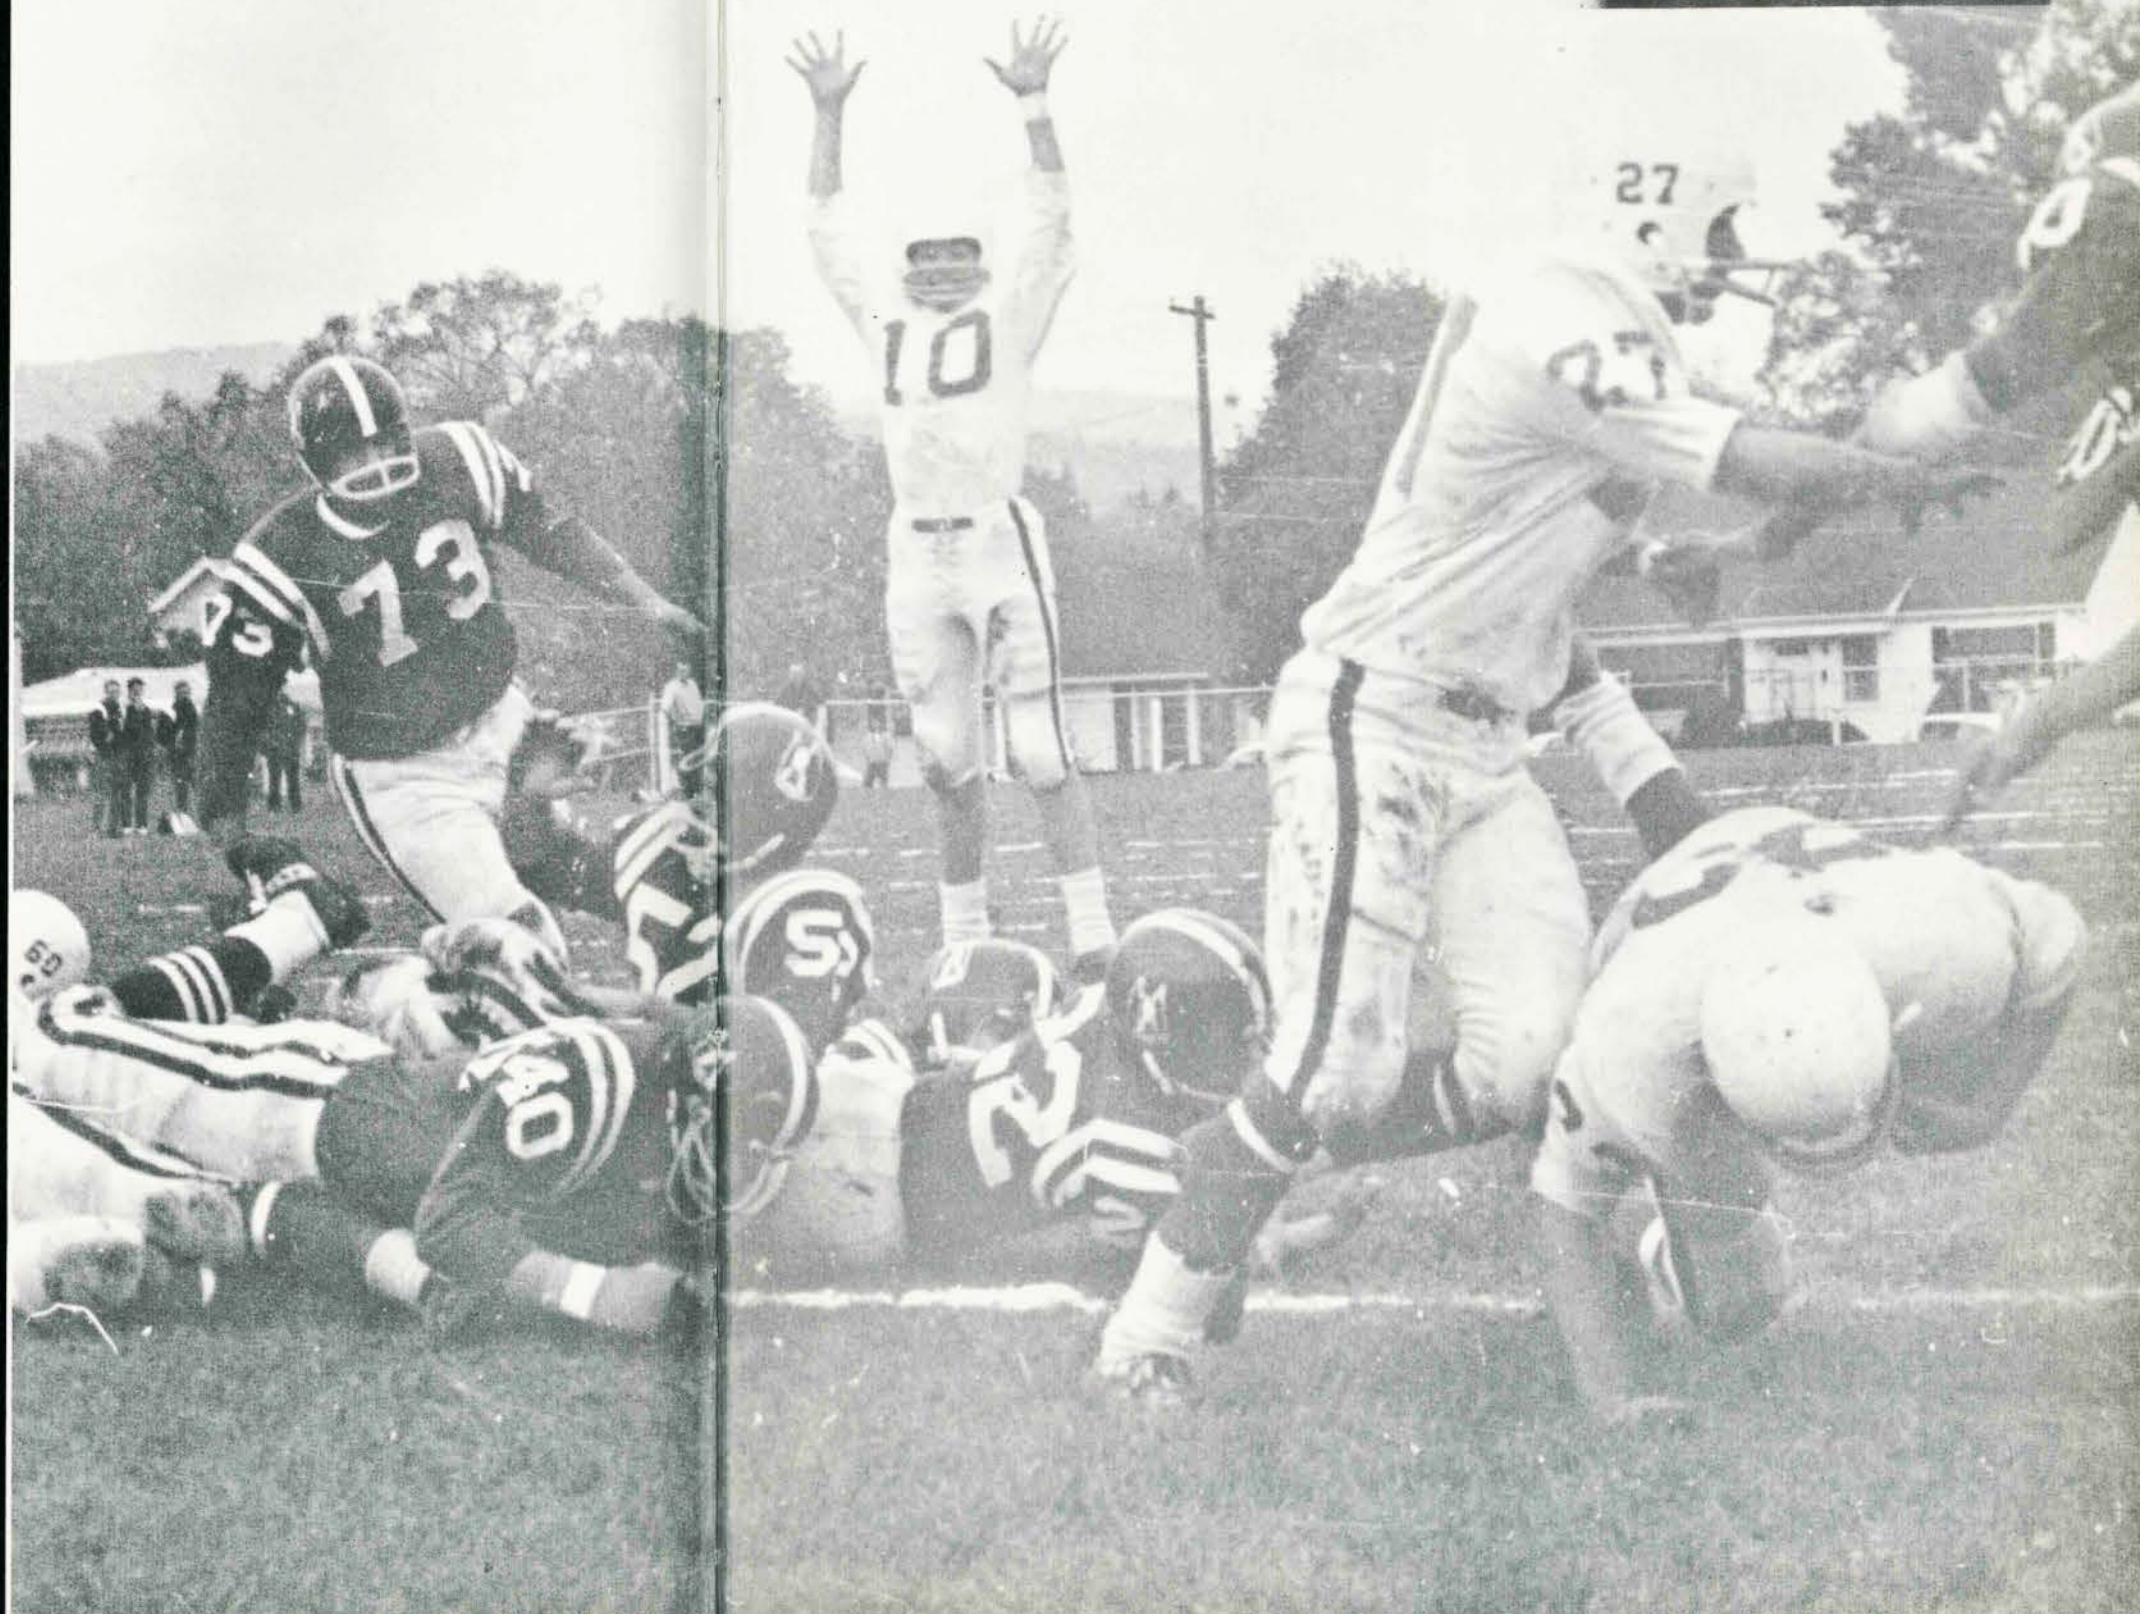

During these last years we have shared many truly wonderful experiences and we wish everyone nothing but the best in the future, hoping it will be as satisfying and rewarding as the past.

If I should lose,
Let me stand by the road.
And cheer as the winners go by!

IN MEMORIAM

Lloyd Flaitz

A great coach and an equally great teacher, Lloyd "Dido" Flaitz, taught at Rutland High School for 21 years and will always be remembered for his outstanding qualities both on and off the athletic field.

Although most of us recall Mr. Flaitz as a coach and some as a teacher in both senior and junior high, we knew him as a man with character. He was a friend to all.

Dido Flaitz, teacher, coach, and friend, will long be honored by the class of '68 and alumni for his spirit, coaching, and devotion to R.H.S.

FOOTBALL

1967 SEASON

The 1967 football campaign was somewhat disappointing as injuries hurt Coach Joe Teta's Raiders. Rutland compiled a 1-5-2 record as they tied the season's opener against BFA of St. Albans. The Veteran's Day classic was also tied as arch-rival MSJ caught up with us at 7 apiece. The highlights of the season was an upset 13-7 victory over Bellows Falls in the mud of Flaitz Memorial Field.

BASKETBALL

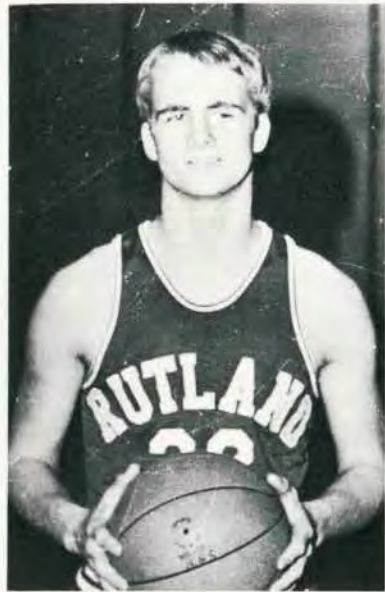

Being number "one" is a tough task as shown by the 1967-68 varsity basketball team. Coach Jim Leamy's squad valiantly attempted to successfully defend their state championship. However they were beaten by Springfield in the Class L quarterfinals 66-51. The Raider contingent compiled a 16-5 record on the entire season. The season was highlighted by two 17 point victories over MSJ. Captain Rick Bove and Barry Keefe were top-flight guards. Forwards Al Olson and Rod Phillips played well all year. Joe Phillips jumped center with Butch Paul, hampered by injuries, spotting in the forecourt. The Raiders had a fine season. They had the best record in the Southern Vermont league and allowed the fewest points in the league.
